Queen of the

For those folks who are new to FMI, we'd like to take a moment and explain to you the importance of the Queen of the Universe contest and pageant.

Since 1970 (before some of you were born!) Empress I La Rey, (at left) has hosted, produced, sewn, teased, combed, called back a hundred times, and generally worked herself into a frazzle over Los Angeles' finest female impersonation contest. La Rey is a cultural institution in herself. A walking archive of who, why and where of the drag world, not just in LA, but in the state of California, La Rey is a force to be reckoned with.

But now, with LaRey's blessing the scepter of responsibility has been passed down. Karina (at right), La Rey's spiritual daughter has assumed the role of producer along with Robert Smith.

Long may both of these colorful flags wave

The competition was sleek and stylish for a sassy, but dressy look for evening. Restraint and chic were the words du jour.

Queen of the Universe 1997

The higher the headdress the bigger the queen. Most of the costumes this year took an agile sense of balance and poise. It takes quite a man to carry this off!

Letters

Not Like Other Boys

I just had to write to you after reading your letters pages.

Please, please re-publish full color photos of your fabulous feminine Holly White, Baby Martell and Randy Taylor, from "Female Mimics" 65-67.

Remember then? I loved them, but it was not until the early 70's that you appeared, exposing your delightful and sexy penis, standing astride the camera in high heels, nylons and garter belt, naturally I just had to kiss and worship your girlish cock; a male clit, on camera (at last!)

You and "Female Mimics" showed womanly glammers, a la Bardot, Mamie VanDoren, Jane Mansfield, Doris, Monroe, J. Collins, but with cocks. The early mimics dressed like womanly queens, adorning themselves with high class attire, long gloves, rings, drop earrings, beehive hairdos and wigs, corsets with eight suspenders, long high sheer seamed stockings, ankle-strap fetish and bizarre 6" heels pointed toed stiletto shoes, hobble skirts, fish-net tights, fabulous necklaces, creamy pink and rich orange lipsticks, very heavy blue green and black eye shadow, right up to arched eyebrows, pouting looking seduc-tively at the camera, enticing us fans to rub our girlish cocks and dress up like Martell and Holly White and Randy Taylor. Fur coats, nylon, lace, silk and leather high-heeled sandals, knee-high boots, leopard skin tight slacks, pouting and shimmering for our own pleasure, in front of bedroom mirrors, surrounded by bizarre and fetish underwear.

But now, please publish mags and video cassettes of above, but with groups of female mimics each sucking each others penises, pushing their penises into each others suspenders, corsets, gloves, mouths and bottom cheeks, especially photos of cock on cock, rubbing cocks together and making love as only real girls with cocks can. After all, we all love to wear female clothes don't we?

My own fantasies are very vivid and exciting. I love to pose and model woman's clothes in front of my mirror, becoming more girlish and excited as I progress towards a climax. In my fantasy I am on a stage in a very special club. In front of the stage on which I perform is a very large mirror, so that all I can see is my own exciting performance, but behind the mirror is the club audience, all types of men, young, old, beautiful, ugly, fat, thin, smart, hairy and so on, all eager to cum over me, but kept apart by the special mirror, which is a 2-way mirror, they can see me, but I cannot see them, unless I have a camera trained on them relaying pictures back to a monitor at the side of the stage that I can view for stimulating feedback. Anyway, I pose and strip slowly in front of my enormous mirror, revealing my sexy Bardot body, long legs, slim waist and soft skin, all feminine woman, but with a little girlish penis, surrounded by sexy soft fur. Mmmmmmmmm!

Some men come back stage after the show and take me home to an orgy and have me sucking all their very large and manly black cocks until they come.

Ever since I was a very little boy, I have dressed up in my mother's underwear. Her fur coats, high heel mules, corsets and wigs have kept my identity intact. She often finds me in her clothes, laying on her bed, sucking her soiled knickers and corsets.

Anyway I must post this deviant and perverse letter to you, but remember, please publish pictures and please make cassette videos of female impersonators.

Yours affectionately, Sheena

That is our goal to bring our audience as many pictures of female impersonators, young and old, from the past and the present as we can meet and introduce to our camera.

A Woman's Life

Since discovering FMI 10 years ago as I browsed through a local bookstore my life has changed a great deal. I was well aware TV's and TS's existed, but until FMI and later Sissy Exposé, came into my life I never really knew much about these people.

I had always been a heterosexual male, but quickly became fascinated with the stories, letters and photos in your beautiful magazine. I began to seek more information and began to buy more magazines, papers and books on the subject of crossdressing and transsexualism. I began to answer the ads and exchange letters and was pleasantly surprised by the number of responses

It took so long for me to work up the nerve to actually meet anyone, but I knew I had to do it, so about a year after I found you Kim, I had my first date with Veronica, a pre-op TS. She was gorgeous, blonde, tall, thin and looked every bit female. She was very seductive and persuasive. She asked me if I had ever dressed up and when I told her no, she asked me if I would like to try it. She looked me over and said she could do something for me. For some reason, I just could not say no. For the next 3 hours she worked on me. Had me take a bath and shave my legs, body and underarms. She took me to her bedroom where she laid out some clothes for me, panties, bra, padding, waistcincher, slip, pantyhose, dress, high heels, wigs and jewelry. I was almost overcome by the excitement and feel especially of the panties and pantyhose. Before I put on the dress she put a smock on me and put makeup on me, then placed a wig on my head and had me go in front of her full length mirror.

I could not believe how I looked and became quite excited by the woman I saw looking back at me. I had to keep reminding myself that was me. She said I needed a new name to go along with my new look and named me Denise. She also began showing me how to walk, talk, sit and act like a woman. As evening approached, Veronica said she and I were going out to a club.

She explained it was a bar for TV's and TS's, gays and lesbians.

At first I did not want to leave her place dressed as I was especially since it was my first time. But, she in her persuasive way got me to agree, she handed me a purse and filled it with Kleenex, a compact, lipstick, nail file, a pair of pantyhose to match what I was wearing, in case I got a run, a woman's wallet and pepper spray. She was emphatic that I must remember that I was a woman and no one who would see me would think anything else. It was a not so subtle reminder to be on my guard as guys never have to be.

The night went quickly and I was introduced to so many people and danced for hours. Veronica and I would stay in contact for several years, until she moved away. For about 4 of them I would dress. For the past 6 years I have spend all my possible time dressed and am living with another girl, Jenifer, and we are very much in love. She has been on hormones for a year and has really helped me refine and adopt to a life as a woman .

I am happier than I have ever been and just wanted to write and tell you how grateful I am to you and how much enjoyment you bring both of us.

Love Denise,

Thank you that is a great story. Our readers always enjoy hearing about other "girls" who Pattaya City is a beach town fort miles southeast of Bangkok. It has the largest population of pre-op and post-op transsexuals in Thailand. TSs "straight from the rice paddies" work as dancers in the various "cabaret nightclubs" scattered throughout Pattaya. Slightly older, more experienced "quasi-girls" work as either "hostesses" or go-go dancers in the multitude of entertainment venues for which Pattaya is best known.

Nina worked the streets.

She was only half-Thai. Her father was a Filipino merchant sailor who impregnated her Bangkok mother twenty years earlier, then sailed back to the Philippines. Nina was very dark, very petite, had a short pageboy hairstyle, hormone-enhanced breasts and a small cock that couldn't stand up for long.

I met her one evening as she stood outside the small grocery store on Soi 14 in South Pattaya. It was almost midnight. The store had closed much earlier, but the spot was a good one for "hooking". It offered unobstructed views of both sides of Beach Road. But on this night, Western customers were few and far between.

FMI

Nina wore a skin-tight pair of black jeans and a black satin blouse with long sleeves. Under both her jeans and blouse, she employed heavy padding. Nina was a skinny "ladyboy"

I addressed her in Thai:

"Sawadee." (Hello)

She smiled broadly.

"You come with me?" I asked.

She smiled again and nodded. Many Thai TSs are often too shy to speak too soon to a new customer. The TS often believes her voice to be a little too deep to be accepted as belonging to a real Thai girl. I knew, however, that Nina was not a real girl and I wished to put her mind at ease right away.

"I like ladyboys," I said matter-of-factly as we walked down Beach Road to my hotel.

"Yes?" She seemed absolutely elated. But, then, most Thai TSs prefer their customers to know what they really are - as long as they are tolerant of the fact.

We entered the lobby of "The Surf and Sand Hotel" and the female night desk clerk promptly handed me my room key. There was no surprise or disapproval registered on her face. She had seen ladyboys and their customers check in and out of this hotel like it was Grand Central Station.

When we entered my room, I flicked on the lights and the television. Nina excused herself to go to the bathroom and soon I heard the shower running. I sat on the bed staring at the TV, suddenly, there was a knock at the door. Now, who could that be?

I opened the door to see another TS! She looked the opposite of Nina. This babe was well-built. She had silicone tits - big ones, nicely enhanced by a low-cut halter top, long hair, light complexion, and—as I was to discover later—possessed a large, fat, uncircumcised cock! And it would be fully functional.

"I'm so sorry," this new 'girl' said in a husky voice, "but I'm Nina's friend and I don't have a customer yet. You like to have two ladyboys?"

Wow! I'd have to be careful. Firstly, I had to "clear" this with Nina as Thai transsexuals were known to be madly jealous—even concerning "customers". Secondly, pairs of Pattaya TSs often operated to separate a Western client from his wordly goods. Luckily, it was my habit to lock up my passport, airline ticket, and most of my cash in the hotel safe.

I invited this new arrival inside and asked her her name.

"Sue." She smiled.

"Please sit down," I said, The only place to sit down in my tiny room was—you guessed it—on the double bed! Sue and I watched television in embarrassed silence, Nina finally stepped out of the shower - clad only in a huge bath towel.

Amazingly, she seemed not the least bit surprised to see Sue. They exchanged a few words in Thai, then Nina said to me, "Okay?" raising her eyebrows and smiling.

"Uh...yeah...sure," I mumbled, This would be my first "threesome" and to say I was a bit nervous would be an understatement.

But I had enough money and energy to spare, Nina shrugged out of the bath towel and draped her slim dusky body across the big double bed. Sue and I seemed to be in competition for the "who could undress quicker award"!

Finally, all three of us started "getting it on". Nina asked me to lay back, then started sucking my cock, I played with her small hormone-enhanced breasts as she bent over me. In the meantime Sue stood over the bed and shoved her big cock into my mouth!

This sucking session was pretty hot, but I really wanted to fuck Nina and—between mouthfuls of Sue's cock—told Nina of my desire.

"No problem," she replied.

Nina rolled over onto her back. I disengaged Sue's cock from my mouth—temporarily—and rolled onto Nina. Grabbing a condom and K-Y Jelly from the nightstand, I lubed up and entered her.

Sue knelt onto the bed and shoved her dick into my mouth again as I was pumping away atop Nina!

Nina moaned with pleasure as my strokes became faster and harder. Sue mumbled wordless sounds as I sucked her big uncut cock, I liked looking at my dick sliding in and out of Nina's tight boyish ass—but I had to look out of the corner of my eye! Most of my vision was glued to Sue's belly button as I sucked away at her knob!

I could feel the cum boiling deep inside my testicles. At last, I blew all I had inside the condom planted up Nina's butt all the while staring at Sue's navel.

Well Sue couldn't hold out any longer either.

"I cum...I cum!" she gasped, then removed her tool from my worn-out mouth. Suddenly, a huge load of thick creamy semen surged out of her cock onto the bed sheet.

Exhausted, the three of us then showered together. Later, we cuddled up for a night of more fun and games.

If this is what "threesomes" were like in Thailand, give me more of them!

EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT SEX REASSIGNMENT SURGERY, 2

A N F . M . I . S P E C I A L

This article is intended to present you with the most pertinent information you will need regarding your transsexual surgery. It is meant to be informative about requirements and monetary policies and all those things that will be necessary for you to know about your operation. Keep in mind that everyone's experiences are different and what material is presented here may not be exactly what happens to you; rather, it is intended to provide a general overview of the entire procedure.

Not counting the day of surgery, you will be confined to bed for six days. For example, if your surgery is on Tuesday you will not be able to get up and out of bed until the following Monday.

Since this may seem like a long time to you, it is best that; you bring reading material or paper work to occupy your time. Constipation is not unusual and you may not have your first bowel movement for three or four days. Of course, it will be necessary for you to use a bed pan as they cannot allow you out of bed until more healing has occurred.

Ice packs will be applied to your groins continuously; your sanitary napkins will be changed as necessary and sponge baths will be given while you are in bed.

You will find a wire tied over cotton in your pubic area - this along with your urinary catheter will be removed on the sixth day after which you will take a shower or bath when your strength has returned. At first you will feel weak but your strength will recover rather quickly.

If urination is difficult, it is because of swelling and the presence of the vaginal pack. Should you be unable to urinate; the catheter will be temporarily replaced.

You will be leaving the hospital on the eighth day. For example, if your surgery was done on Tuesday, you will be discharged on Wednesday of the following week. The day you leave, your vaginal packing will be removed and you will receive instructions how to keep your own vagina dilated. If you are sent home on additional drugs, they can be obtained at the hospital pharmacy but be prepared to bring enough money to cover costs.

In order to make your trip home easier and more pleasant, especially if you live far away, they STRONGLY SUGGEST that you stay in one of the area hotels for several days after your hospital discharge.

The basic fee for the genital surgery is $5000. If your penis is small as to warrant a skin graft procedure along with the usual inversion technique, there will be an additional charge.

Hospital and anesthesia fees MUST LIKEWISE BE PAID IN ADVANCE. You must have separate cashiers checks made out to each provider in the designated amount.

SCHEDULE B - Surgical fee if received WITHIN the 14 days prior to surgery or if paid by any means other than cash.

If you wish to pay the hospital by any means other than cash or cashiers check (such as by credit card) you must contact them for permission to do so.

If procedures are staged, such as orchiectomy followed later by SRS, the initial procedure will be full price. A price break is given for the second procedure; they will reduce the SRS fee by subtracting 1/2 the price of the initial procedure. This policy applies ONLY if the initial procedure was done by the Doctor. If done by Someone else, the FULL PRICE for the SRS will still be charged.

*SCHEDULE A- Surgical fee if paid by cash,(cashiers check or money order) and RECEIVED BEFORE OR NO LATER THAN 14 DAYS PRIOR TO SURGERY.

MORE DIFFICULT the second time it is done because distorted anatomy and scar tissue interfere with meticulous surgical dissection.

Complications such as operative and post-operative bleeding are more common and patient stay in the hospital can be prolonged over the usual 8 days. For these reasons, the surgical fee for an SRS redo is $8,100.00. The hospital and anesthesia fees will remain the same as primary SRS, HOWEVER, there may also be INCREASED OR ADDED HOSPITAL, ANESTHESIA AND SURGICAL CHARGES designed to compliment this SRS, if asked to do a Labiaplasty on other surgeon's SRS an added $1,000.00 will be charged because experience has again taught us that much more must be done because so often the SRS has been inadequately performed (the clitoris has not been constructed or the urethra is poorly positioned, etc.)

If more than one operation is done (for example Genital Transformation plus Augmentation Mammoplasty), it is customary for the surgeon and the anesthesiologist to cut the cost of the lesser procedures in half. The hospital reduces the second than 24 hours no matter what the reason - your quoted fees will no longer apply and you will be charged A GREAT DEAL MORE than those original quotations. Therefore, we suggest you limit the procedures you want to a sensible number. There is a limit to how many different operations they can do on one person at any one time.

The Doctor will determine how much surgery will be judicious and prudent on a one day stay basis.

Experience has taught us that insurance does not pay for cosmetic surgery nor Gender Dysphoria problems. There if complications arise necessitating more surgery or if the eight day stay is exceeded. Any additional charges will be the patient's responsibility, so please come prepared to pay these extra costs at the time of your discharge. The Doctor should continue to be responsible for their own patients and will do whatever they can to improve upon any complications that may have arisen from surgery that they performed. This however, does not make the degree of difficulty of any additional procedure less, but they should prefer that other surgeons deal with their own complications. Also keep in mind that this Labiaplasty is procedure by 25% and the third by 50%. Everyone has discounted their prices well below the standard going rates as a special favor to cosmetic and transsexual patients.

Please remember that all hospital/monies due quotations for ANCILLARY cosmetic and transsexual surgery are for ONE DAY STAY ONLY. There is an additional amount to stay overnight if the Doctor feels it is medically necessary for you to be observed for another 12 hours; the charge will increase if you elect to stay overnight for no other reason than it would be a convenience for you. If you remain in the hospital longer always is however, that rare exception but since the hassle with insurance companies is so great they ask that if you have insurance which will cover your procedure, PLEASE HAVE THIS FACT NOTED IN WRITING from your insurance company and they will then, and ONLY then, send what forms you give to them; however, THEY WILL STILL ASK FOR PAYMENT IN ADVANCE and any monies received later and owed to you will be refunded to you.

Lastly, please do not ask any office to send letters to insurance companies trying to convince them that your problem is medically necessary. This is just the hassle they wish to avoid. We suggest that this be done by your Psychologist in advance of your being seen by the Doctor.

The matter of the overweight patient has come up on a number of occasions. Without having seen you prior to surgery it is impossible for the Doctor to determine the feasibility of doing your surgery if you are markedly overweight. SRS can be done on most people, however in the morbidly obese, the operation is virtually impossible surgeon to overcome.

The final determination of whether or not your surgery can be performed because of your relative weight, will be determined at the time of your physical examination. If you are markedly overweight, do not be disappointed if your surgery is postponed giving you a chance to lose some excess poundage.

Blood loss is not unusual during or after SRS but blood transfusions are not generally given unless necessary. Should you chose to donate two units of RECOMMEND for your own safety, that you discontinue taking hormones three weeks prior to and three weeks after your surgery.

ANY SURGERY withdrawal symptoms are uncomfortable, but temporary, and much better than dying. Also, please stop taking Aspirin as well.

Since the operation cannot be performed completely in one stage, some patients elect to have the Labiaplasty portion done three months later. This is intended to feminize the operatand will not be attempted by most Doctors.

In those individuals who are very overweight but not morbidly obese, the operation is still very difficult and the final results are compromised because of the presence of great amounts of fat tissue. Overweight people simply do not do well during and following surgery and the results of our efforts are not as good as they would be if the person were of normal weight.

Some obesity can be dealt with but we just want to emphasize that anyone over 200 pounds may have a very difficult time. We realize that 200 pounds on someone over 5 feet is not a problem, but 200 pounds on someone 5 feet tall is a weight problem very difficult for any your own blood, which is a very worthwhile idea, they will be administered back to you after the operation. Please contact the blood bank of your local hospital for details, so they can do what they can to help in this matter.

Much discussion has evolved around the discontinuing of hormone therapy prior to SRS surgery. When the genetic female undergoes routine surgery, nature has provided protective mechanisms (not entirely understood) against the formation of thrombotic emboli (which can cause death) that are not present in the genetic male taking female hormones. Therefore, even though the likelihood of this dreaded eventuality is remote, we STRONGLY ed area and cannot be done at the time of the SRS because important blood supply would be cut off from vital tissue. Whether or not to have the Labiaplasty is your option.

Because we live in an age of high technology,, computers,, etc, has unfortunately come to our attention that psychological evaluations can be and have been falsified. Since they have no way of knowing the credentials of every psychologist and psychiatrist who refer patients to them, they must CONFIRM the fact that you are indeed a candidate for SRS.

INFORMED SURGICAL CONSENT AGREE-

MENT FOR MALE TO FEMALE TRANSSEXUAL SURGERY

1. I, _____ hereby authorize (doctor) to perform any or all of the following operations intended to transform male anatomy into female anatomy: total penectomy (removal of the penis), bilateral orchiectomy (removal of both testicles), construction of a vagina from the penile skin and/or with a Split-thickness skin graft in the area where the scrotum now exists, a clitoris and a new urethral Opening, labiaplasty, tracheal shave (reduction of tracheal cartilage), revision of a previously constructed vagina and/or urethra.

2. This operation; has been explained to me by (Doctor) and I understand the nature and Consequences of the procedure. I understand that during the course of the operation and/or medical treatment, unforeseen conditions could become apparent that may necessitate an extension of the original procedures or different procedures than those set forth above. Therefore authorize and request that (Doctor) perform such surgical procedures or render such medical treatment as are necessary and desirable in the exercise of professional Judgement.

The authority granted under this paragraph shall extend to treating the conditions that are both known and unknown to (Doctor) at the time the operation is commenced. I also understand that it is impossible for a surgeon to disclose every conceivable risk, however remote. Although good results are expected, complications cannot be anticipated; therefore, there can be no guarantee either expressed or implied as to the result of this surgery since the practice of medicine is not an exact science.

The following points have been made specifically clear and are intended to provide information and not to cause alarm:

A. Scars result from any surgical procedure but every effort is made to conceal or make them as inconspicuous as possible.

B. The signs of inflammation do occur such as tenderness swelling and discoloration (redness Or black and blueness) which may last for several weeks or until the wound is completely healed. Residual swelling and redness can last a year or more.

C. Numbness in or around the operative site may occur and may persist for an indefinite period of time. Occasionally this may be permanent. Numbness may also occur in the hands, arms or legs due to the position of the body during surgery. This may or may not be permanent.

D. Infection in the operative site, hematoma (local collections of blood in the operative site), dehiscence (wound edge separation) could possibly occur. Severe bleeding after Surgery may occur necessitating a blood transfusion, you will be responsible for this additional cost.

E. Unintentional interruption of blood supply to a flap skin graft or part of the operated area may result in its loss.

F Asymmetry (noticeable difference in the size and shape) between the two sides of the operated area may result when both right and left sides are operated upon.

G Inadvertent entry into the rectum may occur which could necessitate immediate closure of the opening closure of whatever vagina has been created; and the immediate or later creation of a colostomy (exteriorization of the colon in order waste does not pass through the rectum).

H. Inadvertent entrance into the urethra urinary bladder or peritoneal cavity is a possibility and could cause later scar contracture or other unforeseeable problems in the future.

I. Although very rare, embolism from a blood clot may happen which could result in death.

J. Completely unpredictable and unusual complications, although extremely rare, including even death may occur.

K. Shortening of the newly made vagina may occur secondary to scar contracture deep within the vaginal vault. I understand that this complication is generally due to failure on my part to diligently dilate my new vagina.

L. The Tracheal procedure can result in hoarseness and deepening of the voice which can, in some cases, be permanent.

M. I understand that because of the nature of the above procedures, it is impossible to predict all the possible psychiatric and physiological results.

N. Some of the possible complications explained to me which can be involved in these procedures include in addition to those set forth above but not by way of limitation are the following: severe loss of blood, infection, cardiac arrest, poor cosmetic results, permanent pain and discomfort, adverse affects from anesthesia, and psychiatric disorders.

3. I understand this operation is totally irreversible and that I no longer will be able to have intercourse as a male or to conceive children, I also understand that the Doctor does not guarantee any sexual pleasure or function as a result of the above stated procedures.

4. I consent to the administration of such anesthetics as may be considered necessary or advisable by the physician or anesthetist responsible for this service.

5. I consent; to be photographed before, during and after treatment, and understand that these photographs are the visual part: of my clinical record and are the property of the Doctor, and may be published in scientific journals and/or shown for professional reasons.

6. I have been informed by (Doctor) that the professional fee for this operation is $. I consent to pay this amount which I understand induces the surgical procedure and all postoperative hospital and office visits up to six months. This fee does not include the hospital fee and anesthesiologist's fee, preoperative office consultat; and examinations and surgical intervention to correct; operative or post-operative complications.

7. I certify that I am not presently married and will not be married prior to the operation contemplated herein or if I am, my wife has signed the Spousal Release Form.

8. I certify that I have read and fully Understand the above consent and agreement which has been preceded by explanations by (Doctor) I also certify that: I have read and understand (Doctor's) standard form letter regarding Sex Reassignment Surgery. His/her explanations in no way vary from the contents of this consent statement or his/her form letter and are understood by me. I agree not to revoke, limit or alter this consent except in writing delivered to (Doctor) prior to commencement of the operation or procedures hereto described:

I FULLY UNDERSTAND ALL OF THE ABOVE.

In an age of high technology, it's hard to find such great live entertainment at a reasonable price. The Queen Mary transports us gratefully to the era of Ziegfeld and Fanny Brice and Julian Eltinge. They uphold the tradition of timely parody, mixed with a vaudeville sensibility.

On these pages: Don't tell Michael Eisner! He'll want a cut of the take! It's all in good humor for this delightful take-off of The Little Mermaid.

This talentedtroupe elevates the every day to the level of fantasy

The fodder for their creative cannons includes, Barbie and a horny little Ken, space travel and a very glamorous tribe of native Americans
